

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

Marlborough Area Development Trust Limited

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data.

Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Marlborough Area Development Trust Ltd (MADT) is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

MADT complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- To enable us to provide volunteer-run services for the benefit of the community in the defined geographical area as specified in our Articles of Association (the Marlborough area);
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the Development Trust;
- To manage our projects and any volunteers that assist us;
- To maintain our own accounts and records;
- To inform you of news, events, activities and projects in the Marlborough area.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent has been gained from you, the data subject, so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and projects, and where
- Processing is necessary for carrying out any obligations under company and tax laws and regulations, etc.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared within MADT and with MADT volunteers in order to manage the projects and services we run in the Marlborough area.

We will never share your data with any third parties without your consent.

6. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which MADT holds about you;
- The right to request that MADT corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for MADT to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability).
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

7. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
